Press Release

Clerk of Courts to Consolidate Court Services

Effective October 15, 2012 customers will file civil, criminal, traffic and appeal cases, as well as related court documents in the Clerk's Customer Service Department located on the 1st floor of the Courthouse Annex.

The Customer Service Department will continue to accept all payments made by cash or check, including Child Support payments. The credit agencies Penn Credit and Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP will continue to accept delinquent payments in its 1st floor office.

The customer service area includes free computer access to search court records as well as view and print ($1.00/ page) court document images from ShowCase. This same capability will be available on the 3rd floor of the courthouse annex.

Customers are reminded that they can review and print all Florida Supreme Court approved forms FREE of CHARGE at www.flcourts.org

The Domestic Violence Department will remain on the 3rd floor of the courthouse annex.

The Juvenile Department will remain on the 4th floor of the courthouse annex. All criminal record checks will continue to be processed on the 4th floor.

Probate will stay in its current location on the 1st floor as will the Recording Department on the 2nd floor of the courthouse annex.

We expect these changes will result in easier access for our customers and greater cost savings for taxpayers.
