Clerk's Free Public Seminars Announced for Fall

Dwight E. Brock, Clerk of Courts, announced two fall offerings in the Clerk's ongoing public seminar series with the Frances Pew Hayes Center for Lifelong Learning at Hodges University.

Both seminars will be held in the Community Room in the new Science and Technology Building on the Hodges University campus at 2655 Northbrooke Drive, North Naples, FL 34109

1. Residential Tenant Evictions - Thursday, October 28th from 2- 4 PM

Gain a basic understanding of the requirements and process you need to follow when filing a residential tenant eviction case in accordance with Florida Statutes, Title VI, F.S. Chapter 83, Part 2. Also, find out about the resources that are available through the Clerk's website, <http://www.collierclerk.com/CourtDivisions/Civil/Evictions> including access to various legal forms and information about filing fees and landlord - tenant rights.

2. Using CollierClerk.com – Monday, November 8th from 2-4 PM

As the keeper of public records in Collier County, the Clerk of Courts is committed to making information easily accessible to the public through www.CollierClerk.com. Learn how to find out if someone has a court record. Or, look up legal document such as a mortgage, claim of lien, or homeowner association document. In this seminar you will find out how to dispose of a traffic citation, file a tenant eviction or small claims case.

To register and get directions please call Sarah at 598 – 6210 or send an email to seldridge@hodges.edu
