

Press Release:

Clerk Earns “Family Friendly Business” Designation

April 12, 2011

Dwight Brock announced the Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court has, again, been recognized as a “Family Friendly Business” by the Naples Alliance for Children (NAFC).

“This designation is awarded to organizations in Collier County who find ways to help employees balance the needs of their families with the demands of their job” stated Myra Shapiro, NAFC Business Chair.

Businesses who receive this designation have met specific NAFC Family Friendly Workplace criteria.

“In an environment of shrinking budgets and increasing work and family demands, our staff is challenged every day to do more with less, and they continue to deliver beyond my expectations,” stated Dwight Brock, “we take our role as public servants very seriously.”

Since 2007, the number of positions in the Clerk’s office has been reduced from 280 to 200, largely through attrition.
